THEIR CHIEF STONE

Over 2,000 People of Wilkinsburg's Vicinity at St. James' Church

TO WITNESS YESTERDAY'S SERVICE

The Bishop and a Large Number of the Clergy as Participants.

MEN'S MISSION CATHEDRAL CONVERTS

The residents of the beautiful and thriving borough of Wilkinsburg turned out in All to Do. 23 last. The ceremonies were witnessed by over 2,000 people, who came from the surrounding country.

The weather could not have been more favorable for the event. The sun shone with brilliant splendor upon the vari-colored vestments of the bishop and the assistant clergy. To use the expression of one of them, it was "scorehing hot;" but the several thousand people stood with uncovered heads while viewing the ceremonies of depositing the historical box in the corner stone and listening to the sermon of the earned minister.

Rev. Bishop Phelan, assisted by these clergymen:

MANY PARTICIPANTS. Rev. Fathers E. A. McKeever, of Latrobe, who was master of ceremonies: Thomas Devlin, of the Holy Cross Church, Southside, deacon; James Kenoy, of Crafton, sub-deacon; Hickey, of Braddock; Murphy and Pheian, of the Holy Ghost College; Leander, of St. Mary's; Vincent, of St. Vincent's College; Cunningham, of Turtle Creek; Nolan, of McKeesport; Joseph Suhr, of St. Peter and Paul's; Neeson, of St. John the Baptist; Purman, of Greensburg; Tobin, of the Holy Ghost College, and Francis Keane, of the Sacred Heart Church, East End.

The sermon was delivered by Father Keane, who spoke fluently and very entertainingly of the object of the ceremonies and the purposes of building. He likened the church to the temple of Jerusalem, where the chosen people of God worshiped. One floor of the building, he said, would be devoted to Christian education. There the youth will be taught their duties to God as well as to their fellow man, their country and themselves. The young minds will be trained to think and know of things pure and to hate iniquity. He said that every fellow citizen of the locality worthy of the name of citizen, should feel proud of the general good to be done them by the insti-tution. Their children would be taught not only the law of God, but the law of the land; the rights of a person, their character and property.

WHAT WAS IN THE BOX.

The box contained a history of the church, a copy of THE DISPATCH of yesterday and one containing the account of the burning of the last building, and other documents, was then deposited.

The new church will be a two-story brick. and will seat 560 persons. It will be 95 feet long and 52 feet wide, and will cost $12,500. The first floor, which will be used for school purposes, will have four rooms.

The burned building was erected to relace the one built in the autumn of 1869, and dedicated on November 29 of that year by the Very Rev. John Hickey, administrator of the diocess of Pittsburg during the absence of the Bishop, Right. Rev. Michael Domenec, D. D., who was at the Vatican Council. It was enlarged in 1888, and dedicated September 9. The Building Commitee is composed of Messrs. Joseph Kountz, Arthur Cregan, August Stinner, James A. Doran, Cornelius Madden and John C.

participated in by the various Catholic societies of East Liberty, before the personnels. The Chief Marshall was Arthur Oregan; aids, Edward Splane and Robert McCall. Company C, Hibernian Rifles, of East Liberty, had out about 60 men under the command of Captain Thomas J. Lyons, First Lieutenant P. Quinn and Second Lieutenant Michael Reynolds. They were escorted by the Elliott McCall cornet band. Division No. 8, A. O. H., and St. Joseph's Society, under the command of Robert McCall, were the other organizations. A long line of carriages followed the marchers.

AN ITALIAN MISSION.

One Will be Started at the Cathedral Next Sunday-A Church for Them May be Built-Gamblers at Service. A mission for Italians exclusively will be begun at St. Paul's Cathedral next Sunday by two Italian priests, who have been sent out by Pope Leo XIII. for mission work in the United States. They will stay here one

The mission will be conducted in the Italian tongue, but any person can attend if they desire to do so. While the mission is going on steps will be taken to organize an Italian church in the lower part of the city. Father Wall will give them the use of the basement of the Cathedral, until they can find a better place or build a church. If they do not choose to do the latter they will probably be given the basement as a permanent place of worship if they can secure the services of a priest from their own country. It has been suggested that Rev. Father McTighe, pastor of St. Malachi's Church, be afterward placed in charge of the mission. Father McTighe can converse as fluently in the Italian and many others as he can in the English language. All the Italians in the city are

After the Italian mission steps will be taken to secure the services of a colored priest for one week to come to this city and labor among the people of that race. Father McDermott, of the Holy Ghost College, who has been conducting a mission school for them, is meeting with very great success. A great many old colored Catholics send their children to the mission school, but it is very hard work to get them to attend mass themselves.

The mission at the Cathedral, which closed last evening, was one of the most suc-cessful ever held by the Paulist Fathers. Father Smith stated last night that the Catholics of this city are of a very intense character, and their attendance upon the mission has been remarkable. During the two weeks they have been here, the priests have heard over 7,000 confessions and added between 30 and 35 Protestant converts to the Catholic faith. The church has been crowded morning and evening. Last night it was packed to suflocation. Many of those present were Proriosity, and a number of former well-known gamblers were seen kneeling devoutly in pers from the magnificent stock shown by prayer. They probably went to the mission John S. Roberts, 414 Wood st., Pittsburg. out of curiosity or at the solicitation of their friends, and while in the sacred edifice, memories dear to childhood may have been brought back to their minds.

At the services last evening Father Smith preached on "Baptism," and the men aspresence on Dapusin, and the men as-sembled renewed their vows. The discourse was a very learned one, and minutely ex-plained all the objects of baptism. In the morning Father Weymans preached the German Methodism Has Grown Since Its Origin in Pittsburg.

BRIMSTONE CORNER'S BRANCHES

Have Spread Till They Now Shelter About 70,000 People.

The semi-centennial of German Method ism was celebrated in . Pittsburg and Allegheny yesterday. A union service was held in the church at the corner of Ohio street and Union avenue. Rev. P. F. Schneider, a former pastor and present financial agent of the German Wallace College at Berea, O., preached at 10:30 in the morning. In the afternoon a mass meeting was held, at which the members of the various cregations were present. The pastors present were: Rev. John Swahlen, of Baltimore; Rev. P. F. Schneider, of Berea, O.; Rev. J. C. Weidman, of Berea, O.; Rev. Carl Koch, of Vermillion, O.; Rev. J. R. Bodnier, of Buckrus, O.; Rev. L. Allinger, Rev. Ph. J. Graessle, Rev. D. Graessle, Rev. B. F. Beal and Rev. John Bier, of this city, and Rev. D. Stoll, of McKeesport. It was expected that Dr. Nast, the father of German Methodism in America, now of Berea, O., would be present. He is 82 years of age, however, and sent a message that he could not come, on account of his age.

Rev. John Swahlen, of Baltimore, who preached his semi-centennial sermon to his congregation two weeks ago, was the first speaker in the afternoon. Dr. Swahlen is one of Dr. Nast's converts, and was the second German Methodist minister in the country. He spoke of the origin of German Methodism in America, and told his own Reversences during the past 50 years.

Rev. P. F. Schneider, financial agent of Wallace College, Berea, O., spoke next.

He outlined the progress of German Methodism and gave a statistical report of it, saying:

it, saying:

Fifty years ago there was but one congregation; now there are 729, with 1,529 Sunday schools, 70,000 church members and the same number of Sunday school scholars. The libraries in the schools contain 81,000 volumes. There are 7 colleges under the jurisdiction of the church, 2 orphan asylums. There are 720 men in the regular ministry and 455 local preachers. There are 11 conferences, and the church property is valued at $4,000,000.

Rev. J. C. Weidman spoke of the future of the church, stating that the prospects for its continued success were very bright.

Rev. C. E. Locke, of the Smithfield Rev. C. E. Locke, of the Smithfield Street Church, and Dr. Horner, of the Methodist book rooms, also made short adiresses. The services in the afternoon were in German. The local history given was as follows:

Fifty years ago German Methodism was started in the Smithfield Street M. E. Church. During the first year a congregation with 100 members was organized. A church was then built on the corner of Strawberry and Cherry alleys. The second church built was on the corner of Ross street and Fourth avenue and a congregation organized in 1847. In 1869 the church on Sixteenth street was pullt, where an enterprising congregation now worships. In 1852 the church in Allegheny was built. Five years later the congregation on Fortieth street was organized and built a church. In 1884 the East End church was built. In all there are four congregations and three missions. The membership numbers 650; the Sunday school scholars, 800; there are 8,000 books in the libraries, and the church property in the two
